

AUCTIONEERS HELD SWAY OVER R.V.C.

Rare Relics Rapidly Disposed Of

ANNUAL SALE

Firm Of Lichtenstein And Foster Raise Funds for Postman

Jules Verne and a can-opener, seven-cent cents! Tomato Soup and an edition of Shelley, twenty-three! Bargains such as these are only found on occasions such as the R.V.C. Annual Postman's Auction. Last night in the Common Room the notable event took place once more under the able management of Messrs. Lichtenstein and Foster.

Bargains and frauds such as were never before heard of or seen, were witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience who apparently were burdened with an inexhaustible source of wealth. A diamond bracelet with only eight stones missing and the remainder being of questionable character, reached the magnificent sum of twenty-one cents and cheap at that. Red tins were at a premium, and freshies wrangled and out-bid one another in their endeavours to obtain the coveted articles. As for the bulky parcels, contents unknown, would-be purchasers optimistically paid out fabulous sums and were richly rewarded by boxes of chocolates or cakes of soap.

"Going, going"—and amidst the tense and strained atmosphere the hammer crashed out "gone!" and a prominent member of the faculty found himself the proud possessor of a pleated skirt and a hat, very much felt, all for sixty-four cents.

In the literary department much rivalry and eagerness was evinced, and on one occasion when the smoke and din of battle had finally cleared away, a demure freshie emerged victoriously clutching a copy of "Are we sure of Mortality?" (16 cents). A Junior, also attaining to intellectual heights succeeded in obtaining an almost complete copy of "The Weaker Sex", while "clothed with the Sun" and a green quill pen finally fell to a Sophomore. A book of instruction on the writing of Latin prose failed to arouse the accustomed interest, to say nothing of principal, and consequently was tucked away for next year's auction.

Lamp shades and pictures as well as candles of all shapes and sizes were eagerly sought after and no doubt the solemn precincts of the college will be brightened for many a day by these beautiful objects d'art.

Two engine-turned, self-lubricating, triple-screwed note cases set the prices soaring and almost broke up the meeting. Disappointed bidders were pacified, however, with unlimited choice in sets of earrings.

A tremendous sensation occurred over the sale of a pair of richly wrought and handsomely chased stocking-trees and the fortunate and much envied possessor was the object of a storm of whole-hearted congratulations at the conclusion of the sale.

It is thought that perhaps $250.00 might possibly be the sum realized "but then again it might not," at the time of going to press at least $17.00 had been accounted for. However, the auction undoubtedly proved a great success and the postman will be suitably rewarded for his past "noisy" services to the college.

DR. KEENAN TO SPEAK TO MEDICAL SOCIETY

At eight o'clock Monday evening, January twenty-seventh the Medical Undergraduate Society will hold its first meeting since the New Year.

McGILL BASKETEERS DEFEAT VIC. RIFLES

Intermediate "B" Team Scores Decisive Victory

In a game played last night at the Victoria Rifles Armoury the Red and White aggregation defeated the "Vics" by the score of 38 to 16.

As the score indicates, the game was rather one-sided and at no time was the result in doubt.

McGill piled up an early lead, and at the end of the first half the score stood at 23 to 8 in their favour. They slackened down somewhat in the second half and only tallied nine points to their opponents' eight.

Stattner was responsible for the highest individual score for the collegians while Kidd was the outstanding player for the "Vics".

The line-up was as follows:—

McGILL VICTORIA RIFLES
Stattner ..... Pinling
Freedman ..... Howatt
Heaney ..... Lewis
Miller ..... Rooney
Johnson ..... Townsend
Substitutes: McGill, Fraser and Goldberg Victoria Rifles, Aird Lalite, and Kidd.

EXCELSIORS DEFEAT McGILL JUNIORS

Interesting Basketball Game Won by Visitors

In an interesting basketball game the Excelsiors A. A. A. defeated the McGill Juniors by the score of 24-11. The game was fast and interesting with the Excelsiors having a slight edge throughout. The McGill Juniors were unable to get started and before they were aware of it their opponents had piled up a small lead which they kept throughout the game. After a while, however, the McGill men settled down and the game became keener and closer. Towards the end of the half the McGill Juniors were outplaying their opponents but were unable to find the basket. The first half ended with score standing 13-4 in favour of the Excelsiors. Refreshed by the rest the McGill men started the second half with a rush and again outplayed their opponents, the ball, however, refused to lodge itself in the basket. Goldberg and Covshoff were playing hard for McGill.

The ball travelled up and down the floor both teams scoring occasionally. The game ended with the final score being 24-11 for Excelsiors. For the winners Beecher and Freedman showed up to advantage. The whole McGill team played hard but were beaten by a superior team.

The teams lined up as follows:—

McGILL EXCELSIORS
Isenman ..... Beecher
Soren ..... Azeff
Engelberg ..... Feigenbaum
Schwartz .....
Centre
Goldberg ..... Freedman

Arts '28 Downs Dentistry in Inter-class Basketball

Last night Science '28 basketball team defeated the Pharmacy team in a very close game in Molson Hall.

The issue was in doubt until the last minute of the game when Copping dropped in two very pretty baskets, thus winning the game for Science. The losers showed poor judgment, trying long shots, which were ineffective. The victorious Science team used good combination and bored in for close range shots. The checking was heavy and there were many penalties.

For Pharmacy, Bogan turned in the best games, both scoring and checking well. Blustein scored four baskets, but marred the effect by drawing three personal fouls.

Walker and Copping were outstanding for the Science team, the former getting four baskets and the latter, three.

The teams lined up as follows:—

SCIENCE '28 PHARMACY
Copping ..... Krassnoff
Walker ..... Pearson
Centre
Viberg ..... Cohen
Defence
Rhodes ..... Blustein
Consiglio ..... Bagan

SCIENTISTS' DANCE TO BE GREAT EVENT

Engineers Hold Their First Hop Tomorrow Night

SPECIAL MUSIC

Building Will be Open For Inspection and Elaborately Decorated

All details have now been completed for the "Plumbers' Ball" and the first annual Science Undergraduate dance should be an unqualified success. The committee has had a very difficult task to cope with, inasmuch as this is a novel venture around McGill and probably the first event of its kind in any college.

That to-morrow will be a red-letter day in the annals of the Faculty of Applied Science is an undoubted fact, for it will be the first occasion on which a big social event has been in the Engineering Bldg. and also the first opportunity the fair sex had of viewing the interior of the Science stronghold. The fact that the Science students were doing something different in the line of dances has caused widespread interest around the campus and about town.

The various machines and other apparatus in the different labs, which will be open for the inspection, have all been polished up for the occasion and should prove a great attraction with the guests.

For dancing "Bobby Burland's Bodermakers" a seven-piece all-star orchestra assembled for the "Plumbers' Ball" exclusively, will handle a program of eighteen dances. The first of which will commence at 8:30 P. M.

Arrangements have been made whereby an adequate number of taxis will be in attendance after the dance, so that it will not be necessary for guests to make individual engagements.

The initial estimate of the number of subscribers has long since been passed, while the extra tickets put on sale by the committee to comply with the demand are nearly all gone.

Due to the increased patronage the committee to comply that supper will be served in the second-year drafting-room on the fourth floor, rather than in the third year room, the sophs having more space than the juniors. Second year men are therefore requested to place their mapping-boards in the rack-cupboard to safeguard them against misplacement, etc.

The tables will be set in white with red trimmings, while the lights and walls are being taken care of in the decoration scheme. The Union Cafeteria will handle the culinary end of the programme as previously announced.

Subscribers who have not already done so are asked to send or leave their own and partners names at Harry's office without delay. Names must be listed alphabetically for publication, and the committee does not wish to leave anyone out.

Arts '28 vs Dents '28

In the second game Arts '28 smothered the inexperienced Dentistry freshmen by a score of 16-8. Spence, Held and Patrick for the winners, showed the only good form of the game.

The teams lined up as follows:—

SCIENCE FRESHMEN DENTISTRY

Winn ..... Thompson
Centre
Walker ..... Spence

McGILL WILL MEET QUEENS ON FRIDAY

Red and White Improved Since Saturday

On Friday next the senior hockey squad will journey to Kingston to meet Queens for the first time this season. It should prove a very exciting game as both teams are fairly evenly matched, although McGill have possibly a certain advantage over their opponents.

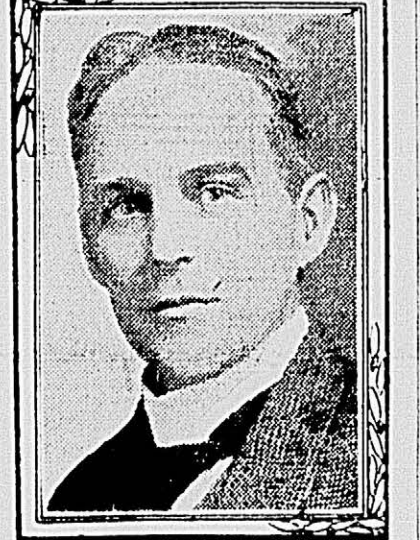

The Queen's team also made a trip to the States during the Christmas holidays, but did not meet with the same success as the red and white. They were moreover defeated quite recently by the strong Varsity team by quite a large score.

The McGill team has regained a great deal of its strength since their disastrous defeat in Toronto, and they will undoubtedly play much better now than the worry of the examinations is over.

The line-up will in all probability be the same as last week, with the exception of Reid who will travel with the team along with Jack Cameron.

He is to be played on Friday night in the new Kingston arena, the old one, having been destroyed last year by fire. The following week will witness the return game with Queens in Montreal. They will meet in the Forum on Saturday night, January 31st.

To Address Commercial.

F. P. JONES.
Canadian Captain of Industry to Speak on Tariff.

COMMERCIALS HOLD MEETING TO-NIGHT

Address by Mr. F. P. Jones On the "Tariff"

Mr. Frank P. Jones, president and general manager of the Canada Cement Co., will address to-night's meeting of the commercial Society on the "Tariff". Judging from his wide business relations and a broad experience gleaned from affiliations with some of the leading industries of Eastern Canada, he is aptly suited to discuss fiscal policies.

The highly controversial subject of the Tariff is one occupying the centre of attention in national affairs and its study is pertinent to those who are studying business conditions.

The Commercial Society has been successful in obtaining very able speakers for meetings so far this year, a fact which has been keenly appreciated by the Undergraduate body.

Accordingly the Committee is looking forward to a large attendance at this meeting.

WRESTLING MEET AT CENTRAL Y.M.C.A.

A., not later than January 31st, and should be accompanied by an entry fee of fifty cents. Application forms may be obtained from the Athletic Manager.

Contestants will be requested to pass a medical examination before entering the ring, and to weigh in 30 minutes before commencement of tournament. The clerk of scales will be on hand at 5:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb 3rd.

OLD BOYS TO PLAY McGILL POLO TEAM

Senior Team Prepared for a Stiff Game

IN K. OF C. TANK

Some of the best men in Canadian Water Polo to Play

The McGill Senior Water Polo team is to play the "Old" Boys team next Thursday night at the K. of C. tank. This game promises to be one of the fastest of the season as nearly every one on both teams has played on some intercollegiate or Dominion Championship team at one time or another. From the brand of play the "old boys" have been showing during the last few days, the present team will have a stiff job to hold their own on Thursday night.

Harold Flisk present holder of the Canadian record for the 50 yd back stroke, and former intercollegiate swimming champion, will be captain of the "Old" Boys team. He and Jim Ross were members of the McGill team that toured the United States in 1921.

He has played on the following teams:—

1916—M. A. A. A. Intermediate Championship team.
1917—M. A. A. A. Senior Dominion Championship team.
1918—M. A. A. A. Senior Team.
1919—Captain McGill Dom. Championship team.
1920—Captain McGill Intercollegiate Championship team.
1921—Member McGill Intercollegiate Championship team.
1922—Captain McGill Intercollegiate Championship team.
1924—Captain M. A. A. A. Senior team.

Roy Foss will enter against the McGill team on the 22nd of this month. He was on the McGill Intercollegiate Championship team from 1920 to 1922. He will probably give the present team considerable opposition in this game.

Jim Ross former intercollegiate swimming champion and member of McGill Dominion Record Holding Relay Team will play for the "Old" Boys and he promises to be a tough nut to crack. He was on the:—

1921—McGill Intermediate Dominion Championship team.
1922 and 1923—McGill Intercollegiate team.
1923—McGill Dominion Championship team.

Curly Walters who was on the Senior Water Polo team from 1920-1921, and a number of other former McGill polo stars will figure in the game on Thursday night. The exact line-up has not been fixed yet, but it will be published later.

Paul Scott former International and Intercollegiate champion has consented to come out and help Mr. Vernot, to train the divers. This will be a great help to Mr. Vernot as he has his hands full training the speed swimmers. Scott will start on Monday and will be at the practice at 5:30 p.m.

CHANCE FOR CROSS -WORD PUZZLERS

Societe Francaise to Hold Contest and Impromptu Speeches

Not to be outdone by Yale and Harvard, from which have come such thrilling accounts of intercollegiate matches in the indoor sport which is most in the public mind at the present time, the Societe Francaise is staging a cross-word puzzle contest in the R. V. C. Common Room this afternoon at 4:15. The fact that it is to be in French will make it all the more intriguing.

Much amusement and instruction will in all probability be derived also from the impromptu speeches which are to be given. Quite a number of people have signified their attention of taking part by signing the list on the notice board, but it is hoped that many more will avail themselves of the opportunity of doing so to-day. The speeches will last only two minutes.

Prizes will be awarded the winners in the various classes, which are as follows:—

1 Bantamweight ..... 118 lbs.
2 Featherweight ..... 126 lbs.
3 Lightweight ..... 135 lbs.
4 Welterweight ..... 147 lbs.
5 Middleweight ..... 160 lbs.
6 Light-heavy ..... 175 lbs.

INTERMEDIATE "A" WIN FROM M.M.G.

McGill Team Runs Up Score 28-17

Davis, Loomis and Weldon combined well, especially in the last period when Davis scored five baskets. Anderson, big forward on the losers' side, scored four of their baskets, and turned in a good, though rough game.

On the whole the game was clean. Mr. Van Wagner, who handled the game, only gave seven personal fouls. McGill had the majority of these.

The line-ups:—

Anderson ..... Loomis
Watkins ..... Davis

TWO INTER-CLASS HOCKEY GAMES PLAYED

Two games were played in the Inter-Class Hockey League yesterday after and were both well contested.

In the first game Arts III. and Theology battled through to a 4-4 draw. A fast race was maintained throughout and both squads displayed good team-work. A mishap occurred when Martineau, of Arts, was knocked out and had to be replaced.

Gorrie started for Arts, scoring two of the four goals, while MacDonald and Nadler also put in excellent work. For the Theologs, Avison was the pick of the team. The game was ably handled by G. A. Cowan and Murphy.

The line-up was as follows:—

The second game resulted in a decisive win for Medicine III. over the combined Law II. and Law III. team, the final score being 8-2.

POSTERS FOR RED AND WHITE REVUE

Exhibition During First Week Of March

The Publicity Committee of the Red and White Revue of 1925 has decided to hold a Poster Exhibition during the first week of March. Several prominent artists will be asked to judge the posters submitted and the prizes, which have been offered will then be awarded. A number of Students have already commenced work on art posters and it is expected that some very excellent designs will be turned in before March first.

Mr. Ken Henderson has joined the personnel of the Publicity Committee, the work of which has now commenced.

He is having tough luck. Just broke my new glasses.
Ditto—Well, can't you drink it out of the bottle?

utes each and the subject will be general topics familiar to everybody. Last but not least, a delectable prize is offered for the best speech. A record attendance is expected at to-day's meeting.

ELIMINATION FOR COLLEGE W.B. & F. MEET

First Bouts To be Held Next Week

FINALS FEB. 6 AND 7

All Entries To Be In By End Of Week

Next week will see the start of the elimination bouts in boxing and wrestling in preparation for the college Championships, which are to be held in the Union on the 6th and 7th of February. All those desiring to enter this competition should hand in their names before the end of the names and weights to Paul Philip, Arts II, and boxing to Jed Merritt, Science IV.

The experienced boxers and wrestlers are on every practice and training steadily for the coming bouts but many men who showed up well in the Tyro and Freshman meets have not been putting in an appearance. If these men expect to enter the college championships they cannot afford to miss any more practices.

There are many new men who are showing great promise and will make the regulars fight hard to hold these places. Several of last year's team who could not come out before because of studies are out now and training steadily.

In the wrestling there have been few prospects to fill the place left vacant by the graduation of George Ruppel but it is very likely that Ernie Freedman, the inter-collegiate 175 lb. title-holder for the last two years will step up into the heavy division.

The boxing eliminations will be fought at Molson Hall while the wrestlers will do theirs stuff at Strathcona Hall. It is planned to leave four men in each class so that there may be plenty of interesting bouts for finals to be held at the Union next month.

R.V.C. UNDERGRADS TO AID UNEMPLOYED

Report of Recent Tea Dance Very Favorable

A report which was given by the convener of the tea dance committee at a meeting of the R. V. C. Undergraduate Society yesterday showed that the tea dance which was held recently at R. V. C. was very successful financially as well as socially. The total receipts were $195.35, and the net profit $131.15. This is to be divided among the Delta Sigma, the Choral Society and the S. C. A. A vote of thanks was moved to Miss V. Cameron and the other members of the Committee for their excellent work.

Miss V. Cameron, Miss McMaster, Miss M. De Blois, Miss L. Robertson and Miss A. Languebec were elected to form the business and ticket committee for the Gymnasium Demonstration which is to be held on April 3 and 4.

A letter from Bates College proposing a debate with R. V. C. was read, but it was decided that R. V. C. should not plan to debate with Bates College this year.

It was decided that the R. V. C. Undergraduates should support the campaign which is being conducted to supply food to destitute families in Montreal during the next ten weeks on account of the serious unemployment situation. Each class president is to choose two members to collect money for this purpose and the Society hopes that every student will respond readily to the appeal.

The question of R. V. C. adopting the plan of Athletic tickets similar to that now in use among the men students was discussed, but a vote was not taken at this meeting.

THE UNIVERSITY AIM

A recent press dispatch announced the creation in New York City of a University of Applied Christianity. One of the particulars in which this University is to surpass all others, is the requirement of all students to serve some form of public good, doing so without pay and while undergraduates. Another advance claimed is the opportunity for students to earn money to pay their way and so take burdens off parents, avoid waste of earning power and make it possible for all students to gain the highest standing. The motives behind these so-called advances are doubtless commendable, but it is difficult to see how they may be put into practice without seriously impairing the worth of a university education. The mass of material which the present-day student must collect together in the short time allotted to him must either be abridged or the time lengthened, under a system which requires part of the student's time to be spent in social service. Any university training of any value must prepare the student to be of service to his community, and we cannot see but that his worth as a citizen will be materially enhanced if active participation is delayed until after graduation.

The practice of allotting part of the day to lectures and part to remunerative employment, is neither new nor unobjectionable. Its sole advantage is to spread the cost of an education over such a period of time that the student can defray the expenses from his own earnings. In this respect it may bring educational facilities within the means of those for whom an interrupted course would be financially impossible. But in view of the fact that the potential endowment is said to be equal to that of the leading American universities, it becomes the more evident that this great advance is but another attempt to attune higher education to the materialistic tendency of the times. Critics of the existing system seize upon the apparent irrelevancy of some subjects of university curricula to show that the higher educational institutions fail to appreciate the importance of present-day tendencies, or recognizing them, remain apathetic to the needs of the hour.

The source of misunderstanding would appear to lie in a misconception of what a university education should consist. Some there are, who if permitted, would change our universities into veritable trade schools wherein so-called practical things would be taught to the complete exclusion of the humanities. Nearly all large universities give instruction in engineering, law and medicine; but while an effort is made to keep abreast of the times, more attention is rightly placed upon a firm groundwork of principles as a basis for numberless variations in practical application.

There are better places to learn blacksmithing, salesmanship and typing than in a university, but there are few places wherein in the short space of four years, one may obtain such an intensive character training as is obtained in the old-established and recognized university. John Henry Newman writing in 1854 on "The Idea of a University Defined and Illustrated" dwelt at length on the proper university aim. "If," he said, "A practical end must be assigned to a university course, I say it is that of training good members of society. It is the art of social life, and its end is fitness for the world. A university training is the ordinary means to a great but ordinary end; it aims at raising the intellectual tone of society, at cultivating the public mind, at purifying the national taste, at supplying true principles to popular enthusiasm and fixed aims to popular aspiration."

CONDENSED COMMENT

There is a variety of intercollegiate contests scheduled for this week that should satisfy a variety of tastes in athletics. Which of the four colleges may claim the balance of power at the finish of the frays is a matter for speculation. The senior basketball team will play the best exponents of that sport from Varsity. The intercollegiate skiing championship will be decided at the Cote de Neiges Hill on Saturday afternoon. The hockey squad will go to Kingston and, perhaps, repair last week's defeat. The Varsity hockey team will visit Montreal to play the U. of M.
